IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

VLADISLAV BARANEKO and ARATI
MAHAJAN, on behalf of themselves and all others
similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

-against-

MERRILL LYNCH, PIERCE, FENNER &
SMITH INCORPORATED, MERRILL LYNCH
& CO., INC., and BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION,

Defendants.

COLLECTIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Vladislav Baraneko and Arati Mahajan (collectively "Plaintiffs"), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by their attorneys, Fitapelli & Schaffer, LLP, upon personal knowledge as to themselves and upon information and belief as to other matters, allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This lawsuit seeks to recover overtime compensation for Plaintiffs and their similarly situated co-workers who have been employed by Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. (collectively "Merrill Lynch") and Bank of America (collectively "Defendants") in the United States.

2. Bank of America is one of the largest financial companies in the world, serving clients in more than 150 countries. As of January 1, 2009, Bank of America completed its purchase of Merrill Lynch, creating the largest wealth management business in the world, with approximately 15,000 financial advisors and $2.2 trillion in client assets.

3. Plaintiffs worked for Defendants as Senior Specialists in New York.

4. Senior Specialists are “back office” employees who perform menial tasks, including, but not limited to, entering data into computer programs and pre-approved templates.

5. During the past three years, Defendants have employed hundreds of Senior Specialists, who have performed the same or similar work as Plaintiffs.

6. Prior to in or around late 2009, it was Defendants’ nationwide policy to deprive Plaintiffs and their similarly situated co-workers – Senior Specialists – of earned overtime wages. In order to avoid paying its Senior Specialists overtime premiums for the hours they worked in excess of 40 in a workweek, Defendants uniformly misclassified Senior Specialists as exempt from the overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”). In or around late 2009, Defendants re-classified the position of Senior Specialist as non-exempt, thus entitling Senior Specialists to their lawfully earned overtime pay.

7. Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants who elect to opt-in to this action pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., and specifically, the collective action provision of 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), to remedy violations of the wage-and-hour provisions of the FLSA by Defendants that have deprived Plaintiffs and others similarly situated of their lawfully earned wages.

A. That, at the earliest possible time, Plaintiffs be allowed to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have at any time during the three years immediately preceding the filing of this suit, up through and including the date of this Court's issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as Senior Specialists or similarly situated positions. Such notice shall inform them that this civil action has been filed, of the nature of the action, and of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied proper wages;
